FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1886.

LOCAL ITEMS.

MR. CHAS. DRYDEN has been busy of late extending the dock west of the new dry kilns.

A LARGE consignment of baby carriages arrived last week; coming events catch their shadow before.

FARMERS coming to town will find the cheapest note paper, envelopes and stationery at THE TRIBUNE office.

BENJAMIN HILL has the tip of one of his fingers neatly cut off by a mitering machine in the door factory on Wednesday.

THERE was a very marked increase of traffic on the Bay of Quinte Railway during the month of February as compared with last year.

MR. R. N. IRVINE, Registrar for Deseronto, reports the following vital statistics, for February: births, 5; marriages, 2; deaths, 1.

The boardwalks have been coated with ice during the past week, and pedestrians have generally found it advantageous to take the centre of the street.

MR. J. DIAMOND, of Belleville, District
Agent of the Confederation Life Assurance Company was in the village this week on business connected with the company he represents.

The Agent's position at Deseronto Junction is still unfilled, but probably an appointment will be made within a few days.
The operator at Scarborough, or the agent at Summerton is likely to be chosen.

AN esteemed citizen complains that the station at the Junction was locked up when he arrived on the train, and that he had to wait outside until the arrival of the B. of Q.
midnight and it was not a warm night.

He wonders how he escaped without a scientific gentleman call a winter stroke.

The Council have already received a large quantity of gravel for market square, Thomas, Centre, Fourth and other streets.

The Rathbun Company are also getting gravel for the road from the Machine Shop to the Flour Mill. A good spread of gravel will revolutionize the streets of Deseronto.

The Chief of the electric staff sprained his thumb rather severely on Wednesday.
As he refrains from giving the cause, it is suspected that he imparted rather too much pressure to the parting grip of the hand at the front gate. An application of Eggar's Tyendinaga liniment soon made John himself again.

TORONTO has 500 practising lawyers with clerks and stenographers, and a total of 1,500; 80 barber shops; 40 blacksmith shops;
100 boarding houses; 240 butchers shops;
40 dentists; extract a living; 720 grocers; 100 hotels and 111 saloons. There are 100 doctors; 70 tobacco shops; 60 periodicals and newspapers; 131 tailor shops; 10 undertakers; and 103 places of worship.

New names continue to be added to the roll of membership in the Mechanics Institute. Draughts and chess have been added to the list of amusements and other attractive features are contemplated. The copying department is the most pleasant place in town which to spend the evening. The daily papers are coned with great assiduity by all who take an interest in the proceedings of parliament and the public questions of the day.

THERE are indications that the coming summer will witness brisk time in Deseronto.
A very large force is at present engaged in the shipyard on the steamer Quinte, Armenia, Nile, &c., and on Mr. Evan's new venture, the construction of railway cars.
A new department added to the shipyard.

The large orders for lumber necessitate the employment of many men in the yard.
Sorting lumber in the yard department. Although the season is only commencing the large and door factory is working to its full capacity to fill orders, and the Cedar Mill has also a large staff at present on its pay list.

A PUBLIC meeting was held in Napanee last week for the purpose of discussing the desirability of forming a board of trade in that town. Mr. Slaven, the first speaker, stated that he had been in Napanee for one of the smartest towns in the province, but a change had come over the scene, and now trade was greatly depressed; merchants were leaving town and several stores were empty. Deseronto and other places had been built up at their expense and were gradually drawing away trade from Napanee.

Mr. W. P. PRYNN, M. P., in his address also stated that Deseronto was being crippled by trade from Napanee. He was surprised that Napanee for former years. A committee was appointed to obtain information. We have no doubt the formation of such a Board will be a great benefit to the community.
We have long advocated such an institution for Deseronto. In a hundred ways it would be to the advantage of the community.

Who will be the initiator in such a movement?

We have to thank John White, Esq., M.

documents.

THERE was a number of serious casualties in Belleville during the past week on account of icy sidewalks.

The interior of the Central Offices of the Rathbun Company has been renovated and several changes made much to their improvement.

We are authorized to state that a vacancy will most positively occur in the Albany Hall during the course of the next few weeks.
No postponement this time.

The Grand Trunk evening western Express was two hours and a half late on Saturday of last week, owing to the severe snow storm of the preceding night.

The mails for the west did not arrive until 6 o'clock on Saturday evening. This was due to an accident to the express about three miles from Coburg, the baggage and second class cars having been wrecked by the breaking of a wheel. Fortunately the passengers escaped without injury.

FROM the Dominion reports of 12th
Works we learn that from 1st July to 13th August, 1884, there was expended by government at Belleville harbour, the sum of $3,154, making a total expenditure since a confederation of $30,858. During the last fiscal year $1,893.33 was expended on construction of public buildings, making the total expenditure on the building $67,677.31.

WHILE engaged in surveying lumber at Malone for the Rathbun Company, Mr.
Thomas Fiddler slipped off a lumber pile and fell against a log sustaining very severe internal injuries which have entailed much suffering. He was brought to his home in Deseronto and is now confined to his
bed. He has been attended by Dr.
Newton, who informs us that he is now much better and that he expects a speedy recovery.

The large processions of teams which have been daily approaching Deseronto on the ice during the past month constitute an unanswerable argument for the necessity of a bridge being constructed at an early day from Deseronto to Fredericksburg and Prince Edward.

The time is fast approaching when these old districts must get their share of the public monies of the Dominion.
Napanee, Pictou and Deseronto should have their public buildings to be expended on such as much as Gananque and other more assertive communities.

CONDUCTOR COUGHLIN, of the Bay of Quinte Railway, was the victim of a serious accident while taking out the Junction last Saturday. He was taking out the draw-pin, when he slipped on some ice and was caught by a rope sustaining very severe internal injuries which have entailed much suffering. He was brought to his home in Deseronto and is now confined to his
bed. He has been attended by Dr.
Newton, who informs us that he is now
much better and that he expects a speedy recovery.

The Public Works Report states that the dredge "Ontario," worked on the shoals in the Napanee River and in straightening some sharp bends, from 11th July to 6th August, 1884, when she was removed elsewhere, and the work continued by a dredge hired by the Department. The expenditure during the last June ending last June was $8,745. Total expenditure since Confederation was $30,735, including $3,000 contributed by Napanee and $2,000 by Ontario and Addison.

"Ontario" worked at Shannonville harbor from 7th August to 15th September, 1884, opening a channel through the shoal of water and also which obstructed the mouth of the river. Total expenditure since Confederation, $6,492.

IS some remarks on Deseronto's one of our correspondents stated that it was once a place of considerable importance but that of late years it was declining. No doubt the chief cause of this decline is owing to the absence of railway communication without which no village can hold its own in this progressive age. What would prove an incalculable loss to Deseronto would be the presence of a line of railway from Deseronto to Pictou, via Northport and Deseronto.

Such a line would stimulate trade, and by developing the agricultural resources of a fine stretch of country, double the value of property in the township in the course of a few years. Such a line would benefit the whole country of Prince Edward as it would bring it into closer connection with Napanee, Kingston and other eastern markets to which during winter its people have at present only limited access. Business men of Napanee and Kingston are desirous of more extended fields of enterprise.
Here is one in which a small expenditure of capital would yield a rich reward.

A TEAM belonging to some person unknown, but who presumably lived on the Indian Reservation, was left unhitched in Napanee and made tracks for home. They tore up the old York Road at frantic speed, but without doing damage to anything until they reached Mr. Isaac Patten's house.
At this place they overtook a cutter cutting through the snow, and the team was not materially injured. At this Mr. Walker's horse ran away, and with the cutter dashing at his heels dashed onward towards Napanee. The cutter cut the railway crossing. There it jumped the culvert and made down the railway track until it reached the Napanee River, and strange to say, it was not hurt in the least. The other team ran on through Deseronto, and for fear of losing the cutter, the teaming still joyed the evening most pleasantly with the hospitable Greenpointers.

The Council had a meeting on Monday

he is prepared to receive boarders.

"TIMMY" of the Big Stables was the sup-

MR. J. W. DAWSON, who has been on the sick list for two weeks, received through Mr. James Shaw a cheque for ten dollars as benefits from the Order of Foresters.

The clerical secretary of Ontario diocese

FOR a time of unalloyed pleasure go to the ber of our merchants and other leading citizens will be present.

A RAILWAY official, who is a decided epicure, recently imported some pigsties.
His expectations of a dainty feast were rudely destroyed by the disappearance of the talentless epicures. A magistrate and railway manager are suspected.

MR. F. S. RATHBUN is making preparations for the erection of a handsome mansion on the corner lot east of Mr. John Mc-Cullough's residence on Dundas street. The design is pronounced very handsome and the site commands a beautiful view.

THERE has been quite a run of pleasant social parties during the past week or two.
Several young men have been called to express their thanks to THE TRIBUNE for its timely hints to church members regarding the importance of cultivating the Christian character of hospitality.

THE Ketcham Concert and Convention Company have been induced to return to Deseronto and will hold classes here for another week. The first meeting will be held on Saturday evening. Their efforts to improve the singing of our people will no doubt be appreciated. There is a vast field for improvement.

REMEMBER the readings in the White Church this evening by Miss McGarry, the most brilliant elocutionist of the day. This talented lady has been engaged for one evening only by the Methodist Church, and we hope to see a crowded house. Tickets 25 cts. Reserved seats 50 cts.

The work of excavation for the Good-maugh brick block is in progress. Messrs.
McRae, Geddis and Dr. Clinton completed a small sub-contract on Monday.

They handled the spade and pick-axe with wonderful skill, and can now be admitted into the ranks of the Knights of Labor.

MR. M. D. CAMPBELL, in compliance with an invitation, kindly assisted the Ketcham Concert Company at their recent concerts in Wellington and Trenton. These musical entertainments were wonderfully successful, and the singing of Mr. Campbell was well received and appreciated at both places.

The meeting of the Methodist Improvement Association of the Church of the Redeemer last Friday evening was very interesting. The evening was devoted to the life and writings of the Irish poet, Thomas Moore. Miss Davis read a well prepared and instructive essay on the life and character of the poet. This was followed by extracts from his writings given in readings and songs by Mrs. Campbell, Miss Bogart, Miss Deans, Miss Gertrude Davis and Mr.
Campbell contributed to the evening's entertainment. Next Friday evening will be taken up with an exciting debate.

The Tribune

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1886.

The Ontario Legislature is still sitting but the business transacted this session has been of little importance, and the public manifest no interest in the proceedings.

The public accounts of Canada for 1884-85, show the revenue to have been $32,797,001, and the expenditure upon consolidated account $35,037,000, leaving a deficit of $2,240,000. The customs revenue was $18,935,428; excise, $6,449,101; miscellaneous revenue, $7,412,471. The expenditure upon funded debt was $13,245,363; the ordinary expenditure $12,094,827, and charges on revenue $7,193,376.

The Annual Report of the Minister of Public Works forms a bulky and interesting volume. The expenditure of the department for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1885, was $2,682,624. Of this amount there was spent on public buildings $1,069,460; harbours and rivers, $844,165; dredges and dredging, $161,703; bridges and booms, $109,634; roads and sledges, $20,143; telegraph lines, $132,273; and miscellaneous, $45,242. In addition to this expenditure there was paid for river and harbour improvements in Quebec an additional amount of $692,931. Quebec always gets the lion's share of the public monies. Of the amount granted for public buildings, Ontario received $398,234; for harbours and rivers, $393,964; and dredges and dredging, $19,895.

The Report of the Minister of Justice as to Penitentiaries in Canada is to hand. From it we learn that the number of convicts in the various penitentiaries of the Dominion on the 30th June last was 1,112, of whom 1,070 were males and 42 females. Of these, 427 were in the Kingston institution which had 496 males and 41 females. There has been an increase of 73 convicts this year, Ontario furnishing an undue proportion of this increase. The total value of buildings, stock, &c., on hand at all these institutions is $2,540,689. The value of the Report would be greatly increased were the financial statements of the different institutions summarized and compared with the expenditure made. With the true instinct of a Canadian Government official the Inspector frowns down the agitation which has arisen of late years to prevent the competition of prison with free labor. However, on other grounds he opposes the contract system as he holds that the intercourse of the employees of the contractors with convicts has a bad influence.

W. P. HUDSON, M. P. P.

Referring to the member for East Hastings the Morning News says:—

"W. P. HUDSON, M.P.P., East Hastings, made himself famous recently by his speech delivered in opposition to the bill relating to the width of the wagon tires. Armed with a practical knowledge of the subject, and veiling the strength of his language in a tone of quiet sarcasm, he delivered Mr. Speaker a homily upon wagon tires that fairly made the members roar. It about killed the bill, too, though the measure managed to creep through to the municipal committee. Hudson is a Conservative, with the best-natured face in the world, and attends strictly and conscientiously to his duties."

While the readers of THE TRIBUNE may be divided in their estimate of the political principles of the member for this riding, they are all united in acknowledging that in Mr. Hudson they have a representative who is a gentleman of sterling honesty and unimpeachable integrity.

CHECK REINS.

Check reins, as a general rule, are of little use on the road, except in the case of inexperienced drivers. These are the cases to which they are most useful, as to make them life their feet, and besides, if they do trip, the check rein punishes them severely. Stumbling is chiefly due to bad shoeing; hence this use of the check, savors of needless cruelty. If a horse shows a tendency to stumble, pull off his shoes and drive him barefooted, being careful not to break his hoofs. It will soon get over the tendency in all probability. When the feet wear, if they do, so as to necessitate shoeing, if it is summer weather put on toe clips only, and renew them often. The check rein is used to make a naturally down-headed horse carry his head high, or as high as his mate, and it is often made an instrument of torture, by unfeeling grooms and drivers. The real use of the check is to prevent a horse getting his head to the ground when standing. It is of no use at all, except as above explained, when travelling. Every horse works better without one, whatever work he does.—American Animalist for March.

SONG OF THE SEA WEED.

As some vile or worthless weed,
Oh! cast us not away;
Fair child of Earth but pause and heed,
Our tints as bright as gay.

For we are the Ocean's flowers,
You heedless throw aside;
We grow and bloom 'mid coral bowers,
Beneath the deep blue tide.

There we our varied tints display,
Of brightest hues, and richest dye,
We make the Ocean's meadows gay,
Unseen, unknown to human eye.

Now from our home too rudely torn,
Upon the barren shore we lie;
Despised, neglected and forlorn,
Left here to wither and to die.

Oh thus it is when youth is past,
And all its freshness gone;
How many on the world are cast,
Uncared to drop and pine alone.

Like as when love's brief dream is o'er,
When care has dimm'd the once bright eye;
How many on life's blighted shore,
Are left to wither and to die.

T.G.P.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

Some day,
When other braid your thick brown hair,
And drape your form in silk and lace;
When others call you "dear" and "fair,"
And hold your hands and kiss your face,
You'll not forget that far above
All others' is a mother's love.

Some day,
When you must feel love's heavy loss,
When you will remember other years,
When I too bent beneath the cross,
And mix my memory with your tears,
In such dark hours be not afraid;
Within their shadows I have prayed.

Some day,
A flower a song, a word, may be
A link between us strong and sweet;
Ah then, dear child, remember me!
And let your heart to "mother" beat.
My love is with you everywhere,
And cannot get beyond my prayer.

Some day,
At longest it cannot be long,
I shall with glad impatience wait,
Amid the glory and the song,
For you before the Golden Gate,
After earth's parting and earth's pain
Never to part! Never again!

A TOOL RACK FOR A SHED.

One of our most useful buildings, a correspondent writes us, is a hay shed built with strong posts set in the ground, boarded up and down, and with a double board roof. It is fifty feet long, sixteen feet high, twenty feet wide, and when full of hay, held forty tons. In the front of it, for sixteen feet, is a shed under which wagons can be driven. This is boarded over, ten feet high, and is very handy to run a load of hay or grain under, if caught in a shower. The shed also serves as a store house for small tools, chains, etc. Strips of one and one-half by three inch stuff are nailed around the shed on the posts, and in the racks thus made, are placed all the spades, shovels, axes, grub hoes, mattocks, spare forks, stone hammers, chains, and all other odds and ends of useful things which are wanted at a moment's notice. Before this was done there was always a hunt here and there for any little thing when it was needed, time was lost, and temper was lost, too; afterwards, everything—there being a convenient place for the tools—left them in their places where they belonged, and they are now always ready when wanted. American Agriculturist for February.

RASPING AND GREASING HORSES' HOOFES.

There is one of the most supererogatory of Nature's works, viewed physically; and among animals as an exalted position among humans as to his intelligent and moral qualities. It is therefore most painful to see how, under handling of intelligent (?) man, he is maltreated and abused. He submits his neck to the yoke uncomplainingly; he accepts the iron-plating of his feet; and he allows the galling check upon the movements of his head, and yet given man his best services even to death. The ignorant smith has his views as to what should be the shape of his feet; so he cuts and rasps, and forms them to suit himself. He has an idea, that the hoof is made on purpose for him to rasp and shoe, and exercise all the tools of his trade upon. So he makes a shoe and fits the hoof to it; he removes the natural polished exterior, which by its tough elasticity defends the tender parts from injury, is nearly impervious to water, and permits a little evaporation of internal moisture, by which it is kept normally pliable and vitalized to the very surface; leaves it in a condition to allow the moisture of the hoof to pass off rapidly, and the hoof to dry and crack, and then he recommends the application of tar and grease and lamp-black, as if he were trying to render an old boot pliable and presentable. The greasing may be well enough—better than nothing—after the mischief is done. But why do sensible horse-owners allow the evil which their peremptory orders, if not their mere remonstrance would prevent. American Agriculturist for March.

EVERY DEPARTMENT!

FURS! FURS!! FURS!!!

A large assortment at the most reasonable prices.

Ladies' Astrachan Jackets; Persian Caps, Muffs and Boas; Seal Caps, Muffs and Boas; Mink Caps, Muffs and Boas; Black Fur Capes

A splendid assortment of Woolen Goods at remarkably low prices for Women and Children, unsurpassed by anything in the Trade.

Flannels of every description and quality now in Stock at the BIG STORE, and we respectfully solicit an inspection of these Goods; they are special value and will excel in make and prices anything previously offered to the public in Deseronto.

The Tailoring Department is now replete with the most fashionable and varied makes of goods that can be obtained in the European and Continental Markets, and we wish to impress upon our friends, that, as the best of Trimmings only are used in the making up of Garments, we can guarantee a style and finish which will stand comparison with any House in the Trade. Mr. Stoddart, who is already well known for his superiority in making a good stylish fit, is in charge of this Department, and will be pleased to have an opportunity of exhibiting these special goods to his friends, and quote prices for same.

BOOTS and SHOES.

In this Department the BIG STORE still maintain their well known reputation for keeping only the best quality and the most fashionable Goods manufactured, their facilities for buying, and the immense quantity of Boots & Shoes disposed of, enable them to offer at more advantageous prices than can be done by other competitors who profess to sell the same class of Boots. Do not be induced to purchase inferior Goods simply because the price is low; their articles are dear at any cost. The Big Store do not impose upon their customers trashy goods, but sell only first-class articles, and this principle has won for them their well earned reputation which is so generally known and appreciated by their Customers and the Public.

THE BIG STORE is the head rendezvous for Groceries and Provisions of Sterling Quality and finest brands. Canned Goods of every description in the market being on sale, but space will not permit us to enumerate in detail the specialties obtainable, but suffice it to say that for all Provisions reasonable and of the best quality, we recommend THE BIG STORE as unsurpassable.

HARDWARE, CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, LAMPS, VULCANISED CHIMNEYS, RUBBER GOODS PAINTS, OILS, SALT.

We must not omit the astounding fact that the sales at the BIG STORE during the month of October were the largest since the erection of this establishment, which proves beyond doubt that in their endeavors to supply their Customers with the best goods at the most reasonable prices, they have won the confidence of the public, and now beg to thank their Customers for the very liberal support hitherto accorded them, and in the future, solicit a continuance of the patronage so gratuitously bestowed upon them during the past!

Railway.

Andrew Carnegie, the Pittsburgh multimillionaire, began his career as a messenger in the office of the late Col. Thomas A. Scott, and afterwards became an operator in the telegraph department of the Pennsylvania road. He was an expert sound engineer, and one day when on a locomotive he saw a train of passenger cars in the news came that the fugitive train "would be in a sharp grade a few miles away, he heard a part of the train was coming along like lightning. Young Carnegie told the engineer of the passenger train which was waiting at the station that the fugitive train "would be over. There was no time had enough to switch off the passenger train before the news came rattling in.

hope that Mr. Crossley will see his way clear to accede to this request. He has provided himself a faithful and energetic pastor and the congregation has made steady progress under his care.

ACCORDING to the census recently taken by the Dominion Government the number of whites in the Northwest Territories is 23,344. Asinibolia has 16,574, or about the same as St. Asinibolia; Alberta, 4,678, or about the same as St. Asinibolia; and Saskatchewan, 1,892, or less than Deseronto. When we remember that these territories include the cities of Regina, Calgary, Medicine Hat, and other places we look miserably small. Much disappointment is generally expressed at the result of the census which shows that our new territories are not attracting anything like a legitimate share of immigration. Dakota and Montana have in the past few years received about half a million of immigrants.

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1886.

A great mass meeting was held in Toronto on Monday evening at which, after very enthusiastic addresses, resolutions were carried protesting against the concession of any measure of home rule for Ireland. It is thought that this expression of opinion, emanating from such a centre of culture as Toronto, will counterpoise the action of the Parliament of Canada which some time since passed a resolution requesting the British Government to grant home rule to Ireland. It remains to be seen what effect the Toronto resolutions will have upon the imperial parliament. We sadly fear they will not create much impression on the minds of British legislators. The vast majority of Britons do not know whether Toronto is in Alaska or Patagonia.

From the Eighteenth Annual Report of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, we learn that the total amount expended on the various branches of the public service administered by that department, for the year ending June 30th, 1885, was $1,038,892.96. The whole number of persons engaged in the outside service of the Department at the close of the calendar year was 1,414. The total number of light stations in the Dominion, on the 31st December last was 526, and of lights shown 617; the number of steam fog-whistles and automatic fog-horns 35. The total tonnage of the Dominion on the 31st December, 1885, was 1,231,856, the number of vessels being 7,315, of which, 1,131 were steamers with a tonnage of 215,570. Of this tonnage Nova Scotia owned 541,832 tons; N.S., 117,354; 283,839; Quebec, 203,635; Ontario, 144,487; Prince Edward Island, 36,040; British Columbia, 11,834; and Manitoba, 5,439. Coming to the principal ports, St. John stands first with a tonnage of 233,947; Yarmouth, N.S., has 130,129; Windsor, N.S., 117,354; Quebec, 101,514; Montreal, 96,744; Halifax, 84,484. In Ontario, Kingston leads with 26,403; St. Catharines follows close with 26,095, and Ottawa third with 18,899.

THE LICENSE ACTS REPORTS.
The annual report of the Provincial Secretary on the working of the Tavern and Shop License Acts for the year 1884-5 shows that 3,997 licenses of all kinds were issued during the year, against 4,233 in 1883-4 and 4,196 in 1882-3. Of these 3,236 were ordinary tavern licenses, 24 beer and wine, 675 shop, 28 wholesale and 14 vessel licenses. The decrease in the number of licenses issued was distributed as follows:—115 tavern, 106 shop, 8 wholesale and 7 vessel. The revenue derived by the province from licenses and fines was $92,867, against $93,225 in the previous year $93,023 in 1882-3. There was a falling off in the ordinary revenue from this source consequent on the decreased number of licenses but there was a large additional revenue from the increased duties, which went wholly to the province, amounting to nearly $100,000. The total collections from provincial licenses and fines, including the sums imposed by municipal by-laws, were $540,299, against $444,754 in the previous, and $435,132 in 1882-3. The payments to the municipalities fell from $257,246 in 1883-4 to $253,589 last year. The fines collected during the year amounted to $18,826, and the amount paid in respect of expenses of commissioners and salaries of inspectors was $49,752 against $49,710 in the previous year, and $47,735 in 1882-3. The fines collected in Toronto amounted to $2,647, and $2,516 was paid in respect of the expenses mentioned.—Mail.

There is a manifest improvement in the condition of the British merchant marine. The improvement is especially notable in the revival of the shipping trade. A line of sixteen steamers which have long lain in idle-Earl Granville stated in the House of Lords last evening that a committee had been appointed to inquire into the advisability of establishing a British mail line between Vancouver Island and Hong Kong.

It is calculated that the disestablishment of the Church of England would set free funds equal to $917,500,000, of which, after the payment of all claims by the clergy for compensation and similar demands, there would remain net gain of $500,000,000.

A band of 30 Apaches 10 days ago attacked a party of travellers 15 miles south-west of Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, killing one Mexican and one American. They then proceeded to William Brown's mine and killed Ed Brown and a companion, James Moser. They then camped near San Pedro where they stole 80 horses from the settlers.

Great indignation has been caused among factory girls at Burnley, England, by a notice which has been posted in one of the mills there. It is to the effect that all young girls employed must cease to wear rings on the forefingers after the prevailing fashion and must part their hair down the centre. Failure to comply is to be punished with dismissal.

LIVE STOCK IN MARCH.

The neglect of stock in the spring, entails heavy loss all through the summer; especially is this true with horses that have to carry the burden of spring work. With out making superfluous flesh, they should be gradually fed up and kept at work sufficient to harden them, so that when the plowing has to be done, they will be in good working order. You must not stint the supply of food to the cows that are fresh, or they will lose so much flesh that the milk yield will be materially cut down all through the summer, for the cow will look after her own flesh before she will devote herself to the milk pail. Give the calves and young things generally, that generous care that surely starts them on a successful career. Neglect of the young is the first step toward shifless farming. The cold rains and north winds of this month are no more trying on all kinds of live stock, than colder and drier weather. For this reason keep all stock housed that can be. Do not allow warm days to deceive you as to keeping the animals out at night, when they are likely become painfully chilled.

—American Agriculturalist for March.

BEE NOTES FOR MARCH.

The experience of many beekeepers, not all novices, is that while they can get their bees through the winter the early spring is the worst trying time. The life of the worker bee is short at best, and the great proportion of those that go into winter quarters die before the season is half over. New brood must be reared to maintain the strength of the colonies. It is often fatal to success to start colonies at work rearing broods too soon, which is done when they are placed too early upon the stands before the weather remains continuously propitious. It is better to wait. Colonies coming through the winter very strong may be trusted out earlier than weakly ones. Warm weather will excite the bees to activity; if this occurs unusually early, the colonies should be kept as quiet as possible. When the red bud of the Soft Maple put forth, the bees, as a rule, may be safely released from their imprisonment. Queens are liable to disease and death, and it happens that sometimes a colony is without a queen. In such a case it may well be united with a weak one that has a queen, if both after close examination, prove healthy. If honey is exhausted, feed, and it will place them, unbothered by dearth where it is accessible to the bees. They will use it in place of pollen, if few flowers are open or the weather rough.

THE CARE OF DUCKS

Ducks are a very pleasant feature of farm yard surroundings. In the last of winter and early spring they are sociable and busy enough, especially on warm days, and begin to lay very early. The duck almost always lays her egg between six and nine o'clock. We have found ducks to do better if they can be confined at night, in winter, in a shed where the horse manure is thrown out, than anywhere else. The heaps of manure heat somewhat, and the ducks enjoy the warmth. It makes them lay early, and the eggs are not likely to freeze, if we have severe "snaps." Barley and oats are excellent food for ducks. If these or any grains are thrown into a shallow tub, or trough, they will soak and be all the better relished. Pekin Ducks are among the best layers, by far the best in experience, laying not infrequently sixty to eighty eggs each, in the spring, and often a gain in the autumn, if the weather is warm. If ducks are not confined at night, they will make nests in some hedge-row or secluded spot difficult to find, and one will become broody after laying sixteen to twenty eggs, or as soon as she has a good clutch. When confined as we suggested, they rarely make nests, but drop their eggs about anywhere. Ducks are very fond of water, and if access to the watercourse bed at the spring, there will soon be none left for the salad bowl. Wire-netting, a foot in height, will form an effectual barrier.

POULTRY NOTES.

Cabbage, as a succulent green food for poultry, has no rival.

Remember! there is more need of ventilating a poultry-house in winter than in summer.

It is a bad plan to be always giving your poultry some tonic or medicine. Such birds are never well.

Breeding stock should be kept up to the full measure of their natural vigor, but never forced beyond it.

Feed cayenne pepper plentifully to your fowls, both old and young. It braces up the old fowls, and keeps gages away from the chicks.

Raw onions chopped fine, with a little grated horse radish, incorporated in warm mash, is an excellent and stimulating meal for fowls on a cold winter morning.

If every poultryman applied to the roots and walls of his poultry-house more white-wash, more sulphur and more kerosene, he would have more cackling hens—consequently more profit.

In the matter of acceptable flesh the Plymouth Rocks claim a large share, for their fine flavoured and close grained meat, which with their yellow skin, good shape and plump appearance, especially adapts them for the market.

There are thousands of farmers who barely make a good living, and some that don't even make that, raising grain and vegetables when, if they would devote a small part of the time to the raising of poultry, could make something to lay up for a wet day.

No hens or pullets will lay eggs in desperately cold winters if they are exposed to the inclemency of our December and January weather. Now and then we find an egg or two, dropped by the fowls in no winter. But, as a rule, unless we aid them with warmth and kind usage then, they will not "discount" for us in the extreme cold season.

The man who thinks it "easy" to raise poultry on a large scale is usually stronger in that opinion before he has tried it than afterwards. It can be done, but it must be done by one who is patient, methodical, painstaking and thoughtful. Success depends upon close attention to a multitude of details—of doing a great many things at just the right time, and at no other time. It is a business which will bear a great deal of study before entering upon it.

GETTING OUT MANURE.

The good old way was to get out manure on snow or frozen ground, for then much heavier loads could be hauled. If intended for oats, barley, wheat or potatoes, it was spread at once out of the wagon, or dropped in heaps to be spread without further carting. When intended for corn or any other late crop, the custom has prevailed of making a big heap at a convenient point, where the manure usually underwent heating before the time came to spread it and plow it in. It is not wise to spread manure on frozen ground and leave it long to the weather. Under some circumstances no inconsiderable loss from washing and evaporation would take place, whether spread or placed in small heaps. The march of invention has greatly changed this now, with the manure spreading carts we can spread faster than we can plow, if the spreader has a reasonable start, so that we need not break up our compost heaps and hurry out our manure so long before we can turn it under. After it has been spread, either upon one land, or one "bout" around the outside, the plowing may begin and the spreader will keep ahead of the plow-man. The saving of labor is great, and the system on large farms is constantly extending.—American Agriculturist for March.

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by intelligent people for over forty years. It has proven itself the very best specific for colds, coughs and pulmonary complaints.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Pleasant weather for this time of the year; splendid evening. Farmers all sowing their seed.

The Apprentices Lodge No. 24, have decided to not have a concert at present, it being so late in the season they fear bad roads.

Revival meetings, horse races, and entertainments of all sorts which would take too much space to chronicle.

Mr. Jacob Fox and Miss Sarah Kaneer are to be married on Wednesday, 10th inst. We wish them a prosperous journey through life. But, oh, just think of a gentle rain being carried off by a fox.

Great quantities of cedar posts arriving for fencing on the Indian Reserve, which are immediately taken up by parties waiting for them to arrive, some having to go back without loads. Glad to see such a determination made to supply the need of long much needed fencing on the reserve.

The basket school which came off on the 3rd inst. was a very interesting affair. The programme was excellent, and the men seemed as young as they used to be while partaking of the excellent contents of the baskets with charming good will and many thanks. We were much pleased to meet our old and much esteemed friend, the Rev. Mr. Kahnaharey, on the occasion. The two daughters took an active part in both vocal and instrumental music, and also performed their part admirably, as also did Mr. McEwen, who was with them. Many others too numerous to mention, in fact all did splendidly. The social was a success giving general satisfaction. Proceeds, $22.00.

With sadness we report the death of Mrs. Lavina Kimmerly, aged 78 years, at her son's on the old homestead, on the 1st inst. She was the widow of the late Peter Kimmerly, who settled in this Township about half a century ago when it was a forest. She had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church about forty years; her home was always a welcome resting place for the weary minister, and in fact a crowd on foot to their appointments, when there were no roads through the woods, while she lived on the farm. Her end was peaceful. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives and friends on the 5th inst. at the Empey Hill Church. The solemn services were very ably conducted by the Rev. Mr. Peterson, from the 116 psalm and 15th verse: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his Saints." After which the body was taken to the rural rest at Napane.

SOPHIASTURGH.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The weather has been fine but pretty cold; the sleighing is falling, but folks are making good use of the sleds for socials for church purposes are raging now.

Mr. James Boulter, Big Island, had a social last week; it was a bitter cold night, but notwithstanding a goodly number were there and had a pleasant time.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. Wellington Boulter, proprietor of the Pictou Canning Factory, had a social; there was a very large gathering, and the night was fine and the sleighing good. As Mr. Boulter is a jolly host and Mrs. B. as jolly a hostess every body enjoyed the evening. His paternal residence was well filled and every body seemed happy. We hope to see more of this kind of good feeling at social gatherings.

I heard of several other parties; also two or three weddings, but as that news did not seem authentic I will await further developments.

Death has visited a good many homes within the past two weeks. Mrs. Joseph Fisher, of Deseronto, who was quite an old lady; Mr. W. G. Foster, of the 2nd con., and Miss Blanche Cole, of Water Street, Mrs. E. Vallica, of the High Shore, have all been called; some young, some old and some middle aged.

There was advertised a great Salvation Army meeting to take place on Friday evening last in the Town Hall. There were a great number turned out to hear and see them; the hall was warmed and lighted and all waited anxiously for the grand army to put in an appearance, but strange to say no army appeared. No excuse was offered, and all the anxious audience had to go home without having their curiosity satisfied. I don't know of any excuse, but the soldiers, there excuse me, I will take that back and say Deserontiville, but as that is such a long name I guess I will not say it again. I must be careful. I do not see any more of Sam Seeds. I wonder what is the matter, perhaps he has frozen up this cold spell, if so, I hope he will soon thaw out.

I see our worthy Reeve has been away to Toronto to interview the Mowat Government in reference to wire fences. I hope they have been successful; the wire fence along our roads have been a great public benefit, and I hope they will continue them. We have some roads that are still very much in need of wire fences.

I hear of some cases of scarlet fever, low Northport, but none very serious.

MACDONALD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. Goodfellow spent a few days last week with her friends in the north.

Miss Thompson has been the guest of our esteemed postmaster.

Mr. Fred Richardson passed through here on business last week.

Mr. Henry Gault and Miss Wadsway were made happy a few days ago by being joined in wedlock, by Rev. Mr. Bates. May their happiness and good will be as their path more rough. By all accounts we are to have a similar event; no young lady seldom gets married without another sister following. There is a new bride going up at Hay Bay; that looks suspicious.

Mr. Joseph Hicks and his two sisters were returned home from a week's visit to Prince Edward, they report a good time.

On Saturday last while Mr. Geo. Spencer was in the woods, his son, Mr. John Dingman, to get his summer's wood, he was carrying a large stick when he slipped and fell, the stick falling across his leg so severely injuring him, but fortunately not breaking the limb.

Weather fine; some think we are to have spring soon, but it will be some time yet before we see any signs of it.

Mrs. Ben Richardson, Mr. John Hamlin, and Mrs. John Cole are ill. Mrs. Hamlin and Miss Martha Hamlin are recovering.

Mr. Richard Dingman, we regret to say, has left to spend the summer in Prince Edward.

Our school is progressing nicely; Miss Caracoles is giving good satisfaction as a teacher.

Mr. Fred Mott passed through here on Sunday.

The farmers are all busy finishing up their winter's work and getting ready for summer operations.

There was a large turn-out to Church on Sunday, and I noticed a great number of strange faces whom we will gladly welcome again.

MELROSE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The school was closed for a short time on account of the teacher, Mr. Frost, having a sore throat. There are no cases of sore throat at present.

The chief amusement and topic of conversation in this vicinity at present is a Mutual Improvement Society. One of the members of the society, Mr. McEwen, is the debates which afford considerable amusement. The meetings of the society are held in the old Presbyterian church.

For a wonder one of our local celebrities in the gossiping line has had her talk brought home to her in spite of all the stories she told and excuses she made to get out of the town. People wonder she would talk it if for no other reason than that "people who live in glass houses should not throw stones."

Mr. McEwen's "talk" is, that "miserly love company."

SHANNONVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. J. C. Ash, of Deseronto, spent a few days very pleasantly among her old friends in this place.

Mr. W. McKinnon was in town not long since visiting old acquaintances.

We were much pleased to see our respected friend J. C. Lazier present at the Sabbath School on Sabbath last.

Reported that Mr. H. Taylor has been re-engaged at the Mountain Cheese Factory for the coming summer.

The Deseronto Amateurs performed the Lady of Lyons to an appreciative audience on Thursday evening last. Among those present we noticed the pleasant faces of the Twin Brothers of Deseronto.

Quite an amusing scene was presented to view several mornings ago; it appeared as if one of our merchants was bringing a load of groceries from the depot a young gentleman anxious for a drive took a seat on a barrel of syrup standing in the back of the sleigh; he was complimenting himself on having obtained such an exalted seat when in turning a corner he found he was sitting on a barrel of syrup with the barrel rather violently into a snow bank.

We learn that revival services are to be commenced here on Sunday next.

Rev. Amos Campbell, of Belleville, will preach on Sunday evening next in the Methodist Church on behalf of the Educational Fund.

GREEN POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. A. Brooks, of Morven, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Carman.

Mr. H. Carman, of Deseronto, have been the guest of Mr. H. T. Carman.

Mr. Chaney Short, who has been in Chicago for three or four months, returned home sick last week.

Mrs. A. Henry Carman has been on a visit to friends in Lennox and Addington.

Miss M. Cole, of Belleville, has been visiting friends here.

Mr. & Mrs. H. Chapman are visiting at their former home in Keston.

Mr. L. G. Robin is busy getting lumber to build in the spring.

Mr. Jay Reynolds has been drawing oak timber for Mr. C. Goodmurry's new building in Deseronto.

Mr. A. Vandusen has returned home from his visit to Tweed of whose future prospects he speaks very highly.

A social concert at Mrs. Carmel on Tuesday evening of last week in aid of the Sabbath School. There was a very good attendance. The "jubilee" singers of Deseronto were over, and the music and singing was considered a rare treat and was highly appreciated. Mr. Thomas Naylor also gave a piece entitled "The Scotch Farmer Selling his Farm," which was excellent. I think it would please some of the young ladies better if Thomas would buy a farm in this locality.

READ.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Last Wednesday being Ash Wednesday the first day of Lent there was divine service in St. Charles' church.

Messrs. Whims and Foley have erected the new gallows in the church and the pews were occupied last Sunday. They will prove a great convenience as a large number of the congregation were without seats.

As will be seen in another column, Mr. Bartholomew O'Connor, of the 4th con., one of our stalwart young men went to the north in search of a wife. He was married on the 2nd inst. at St. Mary's church, Hastings, by the Rev. Father Quirk, to Miss Mary Ellen Barry, only daughter of Mr. William Barry. We wish the young couple every happiness. Mrs. O'Connor returned home last Friday from the wedding tour. On the same evening they held a reception and dance when a large number were present, and the bride and bridegroom received the congratulations of their friends.

The wedding bells are still ringing. Although many of our bachelor friends have forsaken single life, yet there are a few brave left, "a small and lonely band." One of our worthy and well known bachelors, Mr. J. H. Wilson, no longer remains among "the small and lonely band," and suiting the action to the word he sailed forth to the north and west.

He obtained the object of his affection, On Wednesday last Mr. Edward McKinnon, second son of the late Mr. John McKinnon, of the 7th con. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father McCarthy.

We wish our friend Ed. every happiness, and trust that his bride may have every blessing and that the marriage of life will be smooth and pleasant. We trust that Mr. Kinney's good example may not be lost on the few bachelors that remain, but that after last wedding guests will daily fill "the decent church that tops the neighbouring hill."

The bells of Shannonville were informed were lately heard through the ancient and flourishing village of Lonsdale tinkling as they held to the north and west. Oh, what an agitation, what a sensation, what a palpitation they did cause. Cupid's cunning little fellow.

The bachelors are busy still in the northern part of the township. We hear some grumbling on account of their raising some money. They cannot please every one. We could not get any news of their position than Messrs. Tripp and Drumme.

TYENDINAGA RESERVE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Who passed in himself and three ladies as performers at the Shannonville entertainments?

Mr. Peter P. Brant was seized with hemorrhage of the lungs last Friday, and remained in bed until he was taken to the hospital in the morning. We look for his speedy recovery.

Joshua and Walter Brant have finished their contract of drawing wood for the Bathing Company at Bogart's wharf. The quantity drawn was 540 cords.

We are under great obligations to the Deseronto Branch Association for their kind services at Shannonville. Owing to the heavy expenses we did not, however, reap very much benefit by the performance.

Who likes to sponge? On Wednesday, March 9th, a general council was called to discuss a petition regarding fencing, which had been presented to the Superintendent General of Indian Affairs by Chiefs Culbertson and J. Johnson, of the 1st con. After a long discussion it was finally rejected.

Mr. & Mrs. John Battise, of Shannonville, are visiting friends in the Reserve.

The meeting and grand musical entertainment for the benefit of the Sunday Schools of the Reserve came off on Tuesday evening, March 9th, and proved a most interesting and profitable season. There was an excellent attendance. Chief S. Loft presided. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Kahnaharey, Chief S. G. and Mr. Jacob B. Brant; excellent music was contributed by the choir, and solo and duets by several ladies and gentlemen.

There was only one thing lacking in the musical department, and that was the absence of Mr. Joseph John, whose absence was much felt, as he is a general favorite. In his absence Miss Rahabandum filled the vacant place on the programme by giving the solo "Just to please the boys."

The entertainment was given by the National Anthem. Our thanks are due to the people of the Reserve and many outsiders who extended such a liberal patronage.

The credit of this success is largely due to the energetic committee who had the affair in hand.

DEMORSTONVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We have been called upon to record several instances of mortality in this vicinity.

Miss Blanche Cole, youngest daughter of Mr. Jerry Cole, of the Fish Creek neighborhood, died after a few days illness on the 1st inst. Blanche was a promising girl of 16, greatly beloved by all, and the pet of a happy household, and her premature death was deeply and universally lamented. She was laid to rest in the family burying ground on Big Island. On the day of her funeral, Mr. Warren Foster, of the same neighborhood, died, being the age of 62. He had been ailing and feeble for many years, but notwithstanding death came very suddenly at last. The day of his funeral was one of the coldest of the season, but a great multitude of his friends and neighbors gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory. The funeral services were conducted by eminent members of the Society of Friends, Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Varnay being the chief speakers.

On the same day as Mr. Foster's funeral, Mrs. Fisher, one of the oldest citizens of Deseronto, was buried in the village burying ground. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. J. C. Ash.

On Friday last, Mrs. Anson Allison, of Jericho, mother of Mrs. James Ferguson, died of Deseronto, was borne to the silent city of the dead. The funeral service was held in the Methodist Church, and she was buried in the Pictou cemetery.

There was a very pleasant family gathering at the residence of Mr. J. H. Robin, of this village, on Tuesday last, to celebrate his woden wedding. Friends gathered from all over the county, and many agreeable surprises made the festive occasion. It is not every man who is so well waited in the second wife as friend Robin, and his wife's gathering was the spontaneous expression of hearty good will.

The Methodists of Big Island—north and south—purpose having a grand festival in the South Church (Moran's) on Thursday the 18th inst. The Rev. Messrs. Clarke, of Belleville, and Mr. J. H. Campbell, of Northport, may be expected.

"What a gathering of the faithful that will be."

NORTHPORT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. & Mrs. Isaac Wilson, of Bloomfield, gave a call this week.

The children our sick list is composed of Mr. Gilbert O'Connor and Mr. W. A. Foster.

All are in a fair way for recovery.

The farmers of this locality are busy getting out timber for their dock east of Northport.

port. They seem determined to have a shipping place of their own; we wish our wharfer in town would show as much pluck and enterprise as the wharfer at present one is very much in need of repairs.

Mr. Collins, chemist, has been busy getting in his stock for the season's work.

We notice this week's issue an article speaking of a railway from Pictou to Deseronto taking in Deseronto and Northport. Such a undertaking would meet the approval of all as we don't see why such a line would not be of general benefit.

From what the Belleville papers say it would appear that the Quinte will run from Trenton to Montreal this summer. The public would regret the removal of such a favorite steamer from her old route.

The debate on the case of Louis Riel still continues in the Dominion Parliament and excites the greatest interest throughout the country. Several of the speeches delivered manifest the greatest eloquence and ability. It is supposed that a vote will be taken to-night and the issue is awaited with much concern. It is generally supposed that the government will be sustained by a majority of thirty votes.

The Local Legislature still continues in session though the business transacted is generally of the most trivial and uninteresting character. With the Riel debate in progress at Ottawa the proceedings at Toronto are almost unnoticed by the public. The Ontario government seems to be completely act against any legislation of a progressive character. In this respect they are sadly disappointing their supporters throughout the country, and a large section of the Reform press is crying out against their masterly inactivity.

Every day brings a new batch of rumours concerning Mr. Gladstone's proposed legislation for Ireland. If we are to believe the cablegrams the great statesman is much embarrassed by the discussions in his own Cabinet. It is satisfactory to observe, however, that the government is a unit on the propriety of granting home rule to Ireland, and on this point they will be undoubtedly sustained by parliament and the country. Closely identified with home rule is the land question, and in the solution of this it is reported Mr. Gladstone may meet with great opposition. It is said that Mr. Chamberlain, the great Radical chief, is averse to the scheme proposed by Mr. Gladstone. This plan proposes the purchase of the Irish estates for a sum variously estimated from one hundred to two hundred millions sterling. Even were the greater of these sums correct, we think the government would be justified in the purchase for forming small peasant farms in Ireland. If sold to the present tenants in less than twenty years the whole debt would be paid off and the government reimbursed for its expenditure. If the government itself takes the place of the present landlords the rent to be paid by tenants would provide revenue sufficient to pay the interest on the amount appropriated for the purchase of the land. We should think that on this part of the Irish question, at least Mr. Gladstone's policy should meet with entire support, as in the realm of finance, he is even by his opponents, acknowledged to be without an equal. His statement to parliament next week will be awaited with profound interest.

THE STORY OF BLUEBEARD.

J. P. McMurketh, Ph. D.

There must be few, very few of us who have not been delighted in our youthful days by over- and over-reading the story of Bluebeard. We have all trembled with expectation when the inquisitive wife opens the door to the forbidden chamber; we have shuddered with horror at the awful sight which met her eyes when it was opened; we have trembled at the wail of her life-long lord, and fearfully waited for his return, knowing the fate to be meted out to the unfortunate wife; we have stood upon the tower with sister Anna, watching breathlessly for the cloud of dust which was to herald the approach of the avenging brothers; and we have brooded freely again and clapped our hand with joy on their arrival in time to save their sister and summarily dispose of Bluebeard. But has it ever entered our heads in our maturer years that there is something beneath this simple fairy tale, that it may have a deeper significance than appears upon the surface.

Such an idea is suggested by a perusal of the fairy tales or folk-lore of other nations in which the same story may be readily recognized, although presenting variations in the details. The similarity which it in all cases presents is so striking that there can be little doubt but that all the forms under which it is found are simply modifications of a more ancient mythical tale. In some instances we find Bluebeard identified with the Devil, in which case the opening of the forbidden door reveals the entrance to Hell, and the wailing which is detected by a rose upon her bosom which is scorched and withered by the sulphurous blasts which ascend from the pit. This form of the tale probably comes nearer the original than many of the others, but even it shows signs of great modification for the subserving of religious and moral purposes.

When we trace the tale farther back we find ideas associated with it which it has since lost. Thus an Ogre takes the place of Bluebeard, and an element of gloom is introduced forming an essential portion of the story, and herein we have the key to the origin of the myth. It is a personification of Nature, it was originally an attempt of uncivilized and superstitious minds to account for the phenomena of Winter, the gloomy one, destroying the fair and beautiful Summer. The moral purposes which the more modern versions serve were then not thought of, all that was sought for was an explanation of the periodical change from Summer to Winter, from Winter to Summer. Gloomy Winter, always, one after the other, the happy, joyous months of Summer, until finally Spring restores them to life and vanquishes their destroyer.

LONSDALE & BRIDGEWATER ROAD.

The Superintendent of Colonization roads in his report referring to the Lonsdale and Ridgewater Road, says that "work was commenced at the line between concessions 7 and 8, and extended northward between lots 30 and 31 to the line between concessions 8 and 9; thence easterly on the last-named line to that between lots 33 and 34; and from thence again northward between the last mentioned lots to the 10th concession, a distance altogether of four miles, of which one mile was entirely new and the balance repairs to a road previously chopped out again, in Hungerford, beginning at lot 34 in the 3rd concession, and near the south end of the lot, the road was constructed northward to the said lot to the line between concession 3 and 4; and a third portion was built on the boundary line between Hungerford and Sheffield, from where the 5th concession line of Hungerford intersects, northward one mile, thus making two and three quarter miles of road constructed and three miles repaired. $400 was expended and the County Council of Hastings contributed $200 towards the portions built and improved in the Township of Tyndinaga.

MARCH.

The stormy March is come at last,
With wind, and cloud, and changing skies;
I hear the rushing of the blast,
That through the snowy valley lies.
Ah, passing few are they who speak,
Wild stormy month! in praise of thee;
Yet, though thy winds are loud and bleak,
Thou art a welcome month to me.

For thou, to northern lands again
The glad and glorious sun dost bring;
And thou hast joined the gentle train
And wear't the gentle name of Spring.
And, in thy reign of blast and storm,
Smiles many a long, bright, sunny day,
When the changed winds are soft and warm,
And Heaven puts on the blue of May.

Then sing aloud the gushing rills
And the full springs, from the frost set free,
That, brightly leaping down the hills,
Are just set out to meet the sea.

The year's departing beauty hides,
Of wintry storms, the sulter threat;
But, in thy sterner frown abides
A look of kindly promise yet.

Then bring at the hope of those calm skies,
And that soft tinge of rosy shivers,
When the wide bloom, on earth that lies,
Seems of a brighter world than ours.
—(William Cullen Bryant.)

LITTLE HANDS.

Dear little hands, I loved them so;
And now they are lying under the snow;
Under the snow so cold and white
I cannot see or touch them to-night.
They are quiet and still at last, Ah me,
How busy and restless they used to be;
But now they can never reach up through The snow.

Dear little hands, I loved them so.
Dear little hands, I miss them so,
All through the day wherever I go;
All through the night how lonely it seems,
For no little hands wake me out of my dreams.
I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others miss sunshine and flowers,
Day time or night time wherever I go
Dear little hands, I miss them so.

Dear little hands, they have gone from me now,
Never again will they rest on my brow;
Never again soothe my sorrowful face,
Never clasp me in a childish embrace,
And now my forehead grows wrinkled with care,
Thinking of little hands once resting there.
But I know in a childish way, heavily Dear little hands, I will clasp you some time.

Dear little hands, when the master shall call,
I'll welcome the summons that comes to us all;
When my feet touch the waters so dark and so cold
And catch my first glimpse of the city of gold.
If I keep my eyes fixed on the heavenly gate
Over the tide where the white robed ones wait.
Shall I know you, I wonder, among the bright bands
Will you beckon me over, Oh, dear little hands.

When the blood is loaded with impurities and moves sluggishly in the veins, an alterative is needed. This condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood, and impart energy to the system.

He who experiments carefully and repeatedly under various circumstances, as regards broods and feeding, must reach the certain conclusion that hens do now, in this country, and have for the past twenty years paid a high price. It is also true that the difference between the money paid out for feeding fowls and the same gained from their produce tends constantly to increase, as is evident from a comparison of the market rates through a series of years.

Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone

CORRESPONDENCE.

PICTON.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A sad accident occurred in the town on Saturday last. When John Black and his son, of Sophiasburg, were leaving town for home, their horse, a very spirited animal, became frightened by the cutter coming against its heels, caused by one of the hold-back straps becoming unfastened. The animal rushed up street with great speed, and when opposite the Coffee House ran into the door-yard of Edwin Roblin, completely wrecking the cutter. Mr. Black's head came in contact with the fence and crushed the side of his head. The son who was driving was not injured; the father only survived a few hours.

Another accident on the ice at Glenora occurred about the same time as the former. Capt. Angus Stanton and his two brothers, each with a large load of oats were on their way to Picton. One of the loads needed way clearing, and one of the brothers left his team and went to his assistance. The team left standing were making off and the Capt. Stanton made a quick move to jump off his sleigh to stop them, when he fell on the ice from the top of his load striking on his shoulder and the collar bone. He will soon be around again, likely by the time navigation opens. Travelling on the ice is good now. The load taking advantage of it by hauling grain, lumber, &c.

The court last week occupied only one day. Judge Cameron was on the bench, and in his address to the jury on the question, defining the Government for the cause they took in the matter, and denouncing the French for kicking up a fuss, that is likely to make the pot boil over and give some of them a scolding.

St. Patrick's day will be celebrated here by a grand concert in the Town Hall in the evening, and the band playing a few pieces during the day.

Dr. Platt returned from Ottawa on Saturday and held a meeting in the Town Hall in the afternoon. Only Reformers were admitted.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Martin Candon, of lot 22 north range of the 6th con., had a sale of his horses, stock and agricultural implements, &c., on Monday last.

We regret to say that Prof. Denys, owing to professional engagements, has been obliged to resign as organist and leader of the choir of St. Charles Church. His departure is very much regretted, as it was hoped that he might have been enabled to continue for some time longer. It is found impossible to do so. Prof. Denys has done wonders with the choir for the short time they have been under his direction.

Mr. Fairman has for the present taken charge of the organ and choir.

Rev. Father McCarthy was in Belleville on Monday and Tuesday attending the Forty Hours Devotion.

There was Divine Service in St. Charles Church on Wednesday being St. Patrick's Day.

Mr. Lally, who died on the 9th inst., at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Thomas Morgan, of Richmond, was buried in St. Charles Cemetery on the 11th. There was a large attendance at the funeral. Mrs. Lally was mother of Mr. Michael Lally, license-inspector for East Hastings.

The meeting for selling the milk routes at the Albert Cheese Factory was held according to notice on Monday last. Mr. Michael Williams acted as the chair, and Mr. Denis Hanley acted as Secretary. The following took the milk routes: Mr. Callery 4th con.; Mr. Charles McGuinness, 7th con.; the Lonsdale route; James Daly, Mr. James Jordan, Mr. O. Krane and Mr. Jas. Doyle. A general feeling having been expressed throughout the country that the factories should not open before the 10th of May, it was moved by Mr. Denis Hanley, seconded by Mr. Robert Sampson, that in accordance with a wide spread feeling the Albert Factory do not commence operation for the ensuing season until the 10th May, for the purpose of improving the market and guarding against new cheese being placed on the market before 1st of June, and to allow the old cheese to be sold off.

Carried.

Mr. Daniel McCrea has been drawing gravel from Mr. McCormick's pit on the 7th con. He had a large number of teams employed, and hauled 160 yards on the side road between the 5th and 6th con.

The sleighing still continues cool, but a few more days like Tuesday will soon run it in.

The prospects for an early spring are good, though we will, no doubt, have many rough days before the spring opens.

News is scarce now-a-days, therefore our correspondence is necessarily brief the last few weeks.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We are afflicted by the death of friends and relatives about us. Whether the death of Mr. John Doyle, of Richmond, a few days ago; again of Mr. Daniel Callaghan, of the 3rd con. of Tyndinaga, and to-day, March 10th, we attended the funeral of Miss Ellen Thompson, of the 2nd con. Tyndinaga at the Emmott church which was attended by a very large congregation of relatives and friends who had assembled to pay tribute of respect to departed worth. She had been a great sufferer for a number of years. Some months ago she was thought by her friends that she was fast recovering but in a short time she was again taken worse and continued failing until death relieved her from her sufferings. The funeral services were very ably conducted by Rev. Mr. Peake, of Shamallowville, from second Corinthians, fifth chapter and ninth verse. We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord; after which he resting place with her father and relatives who had passed on before.

We are informed that the tea-meeting at the Empey Hill Church last evening was largely attended the night being so pleasant and so good. Parties gathered from all quarters to enjoy the treat, and have a social time with old friends; said, no doubt.

LIFE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT.

Let's often talk of noble deeds, And rarer of the bad ones, And sing about our happy days, And not about the sad ones. We were not made to fret and sigh, And when grief sleeps, to make it; Bright happiness is standing by— This life is what we make it.

Let's find the sunny side of men, Or be believers in it. A light there is in every soul. This takes the pain out of life. Oh! there's a slumbering good in all, And we perchance may wake it; Our happiness is standing by— This life is what we make it.

Then love's to those whose loving hearts Sied low and joy about them? Thanks be to them for countless gains We ne'er had known without them. Oh! this should be a happy word, To all who may partake it; The fault's our own, if it is not— This life is what we make it.

The poet himself does not open a single one of the thousands of such letters which he post annually discharges at his door, nor does he ever read a line of their contents. The documents are at once destroyed.

Two of the three British peers over 90 have passed away within the last fortnight—the Earl of Strathmore, the oldest in the peerage, at 92, and Lord Brougham at 91.

Lord Strathmore has been a successful breeder and runner of horses. His wife acquired recently unpleasant notoriety as the author of the brilliant paragraph signed by Gladys, Lady Lonsdale, for which Edmund Yea suffered imprisonment, and for which she received $10,000, though her husband had an income of many thousands a year.

Lord Brougham was the younger brother of the great Brougham was philosopher, and Chancellor—a lion-hearted man with much of his learning and all his meanness—who died also over 90. Viscount Eversley, who married the daughter of Lord Strathmore, is now the father of the House of Peers—aged 94. He is vigorous, and attended the opening of Parliament.

Cardinal Healy, hawking and spitting up pills, etc., etc., is, it is reported, the son of Dr. Carson's Catholic Cure. No reason why he should suffer another such attack of long-standing have been cured by a single bottle of Dr. Carson's Catholic Cure. All Druggists $1.00 per bottle.

THE FINGER USED AS AN ERASER.

People who are fastidious about the perfection of their correspondence carefully scratch with a steel, or, at least with a rubber, a word which has been written in ink. I have noticed hundreds of men who write a great deal of business letters, and even whole lines, which are written in ink, and then they write over the place first written upon.

"Never use an eraser of any kind," said a cabinet officer a few days ago, speaking of this habit. "It takes too long. If I don't want to cross out with my finger, I rub it off or then out with my finger. It is quick and effective, and one scarcely notices the blotch afterward. I believe the habit is an English one. I venture you will find few blotters or erasers about the desks of old officers in the departments, or old statesmen in congress."

"BUSINESS MAXIMS."

A stirring address on "Business Maxims" was recently delivered by Mr. John Macdonald, of Toronto. The speaker based his observations on maxims having truth, honesty, thoroughness and candor as their central idea. Truth and honesty he considered the most important qualities in a bond between individuals or a treaty between nations. They offered the only security in the multiplied and ramified transactions of trade; they have barriers which guard a family against the encroachments of envy or malice, of pride, of dissimulation, of every hateful and hateful vice—in a word, they were the pillars on which the whole fabric of society rested, and are as unalterable and imperishable as the nature of God himself. Few men, he said, mastered all the details of their calling, hence the necessity of the failure so often seen in every sphere of life. But a man might be truthful, honest and thoroughly conversant with his business and yet fail for want of energy. Those who thought that business success was to be achieved by half-heartedness or fitful application were greatly mistaken. There is no royal road to success, and the business world has no room for idlers. Go into any warehouse, and you will not be long there before you will be able to pick out the men who are of value to the establishment and make their work felt. Such men would rise, but what of the others? They will soon be unheard of. The men who give their whole attention to the business before them are the successful men of life. Your success in after years greatly depends upon the manner in which you act in the college. But do not think when you leave it you know everything. If you have learnt the secret of obtaining knowledge in your business, and have the spirit of willingness to learn, you have acquired that which will prove of inestimable value to you. Do not begin to think that after you have been in the warehouse for six months that you can run the establishment, or that you are greatly underpaid, and unless an important change is made in your position you will leave. There is too much of that self-importance to be found in the young men of to-day, too much of that importance which forebodes failure. Business men can well afford to dispense with their services.

NEW YORK LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The city, and indeed the country at large, has spent the last week in discussion of the disaster which is the sinking of the "Oregon," the fastest steamer of the Conard line. She was nearing the New York harbor, and just off Fire Island, when a large sea broke over her, causing a tremendous jar and leaving her with a large hole in her side. The schooner was never again nor anything of her crew. Her name is unknown and no crew has yet been found by which to trace her. The collision occurred about 4 a.m. Sunday morning, 18th inst., and was not received till about noon. Signals of distress finally brought an incoming German steamer to her aid, and all her passengers were transferred, not a soul being lost; the united crews and passengers landed at the company's wharf numbering about eleven hundred. No property was saved, except that worn about the person of the travelers, and great loss of valuable and costly material, reported. The lady estimated her loss of jewels at $30,000, and Tiffany & Co., Arnold Constable, and other prominent firms report heavy loss. The vessel sank about an hour after the crew had abandoned her, and all hopes of raising her seem to be hopeless. The general opinion seems to be, that the catastrophe was unavoidable and the officers are exonerated from all blame. Two of her masts can be seen above water, and divers are constantly employed in trying to recover lost property. Friday it was reported that a part of a shattered schooner was found a short distance from the scene of the disaster, refuting the theory entertained by some that the schooner had been the cause of her destruction. The company will be sued by numerous parties, hoping to make good their loss in a measure at least.

The juvenile portion of the population is on the tip-toe, and great excitement prevails over Barnum's expected arrival with his large menagerie and circus, the great Jumbo's skeleton and skin forming important parts of the show. All fences inclosing vacant lots are covered with glowing pictorial descriptions of the wonders to be seen and Jumbo's struggle with the murderous engine, which caused his death, is portrayed in graphic outlines. The Madison Square Garden will be Barnum's headquarters as usual, and those boasting of having seen Jumbo will not rest satisfied until their eyes have rested wonderingly on his mammoth skeleton and stuffed skin. Barnum's genius and tact are demonstrated in his utilizing both the skeleton and the hide of the wonderful elephant, eliminating two curiosities from one.

Thursday evening the boys set every one agog by lustily crying their extras, and on investigation it was ascertained that one of their worthy Aldermen had been arrested on confession of having received a bribe in his official capacity, of $20,000. It seems that there has long been suspicion of official desert, and a detective had been commissioned to ferret out the truth, something like a year ago. He succeeded in ingratiating himself into the confidence of one Alderman, Jas. by name, and when the dupe had admitted his guilt and intimated his intention of leaving town, matters were considered ripe for action and he was shadowed and captured. He has been released, however, on very small bail, and people await developments with bated breath. Jas.ine has it now in his power to reveal secrets which would lead to the conviction of many well-known men.

They at large, and the medical profession in particular, has sustained a great loss in the decease of Dr. Austin Flint and George Van derlip. These died within a few days of each other, and were buried with appropriate demonstrations, in which their professional brethren bore honorable part. Dr. Alfred C. Post preceded these two doctors by a fortnight only. Pneumonia has made its annual devastating march through our city and taken from us many prominent men.

LIVE STOCK IN APRIL.

Bathe the horses shoulders with cold water or brine as quick as the collars come off, before the sweat begins to dry, and rub off the collars and saddle pieces with a moist cloth. This will prevent sore on shoulders. All changes of food should be gradual, but in proportion to the work. Heavily taxed muscles make demands on the stomach; hence, increase the feed after work begins, never in anticipation. A horse fed up before he is called to work gets soft and fat. Be careful to protect horses from drafts when warm, rub down, or let them stand in close stables. Cows at calving need little care, the less the better if in a loose box or the open field. "Frothing" over them is always provocative of injury. Give no grain, but a loosening diet of bran and roots for some days, and gradually increase feed as recovery symptoms pass away. Keep pigs growing thrifty; skin-milk with a little linseed meal added to it as a substitute for the cream, is just as good for them as whole milk from the pail. Sheep must be kept in dry yards or there will be danger to their feet. Ewes with lambs should have grain daily, at least until they come to pasture. Swine—Those who buy young pigs for feeding should buy none but half bloods by a Berkshire, Yorkshire, Poland or other pure sire or The grow faster and fatter with less feed. Poultry—Reduce the stock of fowls as soon as this year's hatch is well provided for, but hold on to old turkeys on odd fegs, they get used to the ways of the farm and are worth much more as breeders than young ones. Ducks are as good as till the year old. An Arkley is her prime at five, and a coot at twenty.—American Agriculturist for April.
